St. John of Capistrano was born in Italy in 1385. He practiced law and was appointed governor of Perugia. He studied under the Franciscans and began preaching in 1420 all through eastern Europe and Russia.

He was appointed by the Pope to lead a large Christian army against Mohammed II. The invaders were defeated in the battle of Belgrade.

Worn out from the battle, he was taken by the bubonic plague. He died in 1486 in the Franciscan Monastery of Villach, Austria.

He is known as the "Soldier Saint" and is patron of judges, lawyers and military chaplains.

SYNOD 2020

Together On The Road -

Becoming The Church We Are Called To Be

This weekend we are celebrating Synod Sunday. At the invitation of Archbishop Malcolm, the Archdiocese of Liverpool, people and priests together, are embarking upon a journey that will lead us to an Archdiocesan Synod in October 2020.

During the next two years we will gather to reflect on what God is asking of our Church in the years to come. We will hear more about this Synod during the Mass and there are leaflets for you to take home to read. Today we have been asked to pray for God's blessing on these next two years as we try to listen to each other, to the world we are living in, and to the voice of the Holy Spirit. The word 'Synod' originally meant 'Together on the Road'. The idea of being on a journey together in God's Church is a part of our prayer today.

The Association for the Propagation of the Faith (APF) assists every one of the Catholic Church's 1,069 mission dioceses in providing pastoral care and preaching the Gospel effectively. It was founded in 1822 by Pauline-Marie Jaricot, a young French woman who persuaded local working people to give a farthing a week in support of overseas mission. A century later, the organisation was established in almost every country in the world. Pope Pius XI made it the official mission-funding society for the Catholic Church.
