

Remembrance Sunday

On 11th November, 1918 at 11:00am the First World War came to an end. About nine million soldiers lost their lives, this was meant to be the war to end all wars and yet war still rages in many parts of our world. Today we remember and pray for the countless men and women who have died and are dying in war, for all those affected and suffering, and for those now serving in our Armed Forces on our behalf.

'Heal they servants Lord who are sick. Send them help O Lord, and comfort from thy holy place'

Sadly we record the death of Monsignor Canon James Commins on 6th November. He was 97 years of age and in the 73<sup>d</sup> year of his priesthood. He was greatly loved for the devotion and care to the four parishes he served in, including for two years here at St. Gregory's (1966 – 1968), and also greatly respected by his fellow priests for the outstanding service he brought to the financial administration of the Archdiocese.

'In paradisum deducant eum angeli' - may he rest in peace.
