

November, the month of the Holy Souls

On Tuesday we celebrate all Saints Day, as we begin a month dedicated to the remembrance of all who have completed their earthly journey and 'gone on ahead before us'. Wednesday is All Souls Day, and all the masses in November will be offered for the 'Holy Souls', the intentions of the 'Pious List' - the lists of relatives and friends you have drawn up who are still remembered, including priests who have served here at Weldbank and 'those who have no one to pray for them'. May they all rest in the peace of God's Love.

On 13th November we will celebrate Remembrance Sunday and pray at our cenotaph for all the war dead – and for peace in our world.

The annual mass of remembrance for all our parishioners, especially those who have died in the last twelve months, will be celebrated in November, because of a number of events on the Sundays it will be mid week at a date still to be arranged.

Very sadly we record the death of baby Dollie Anne Noonan on 22nd October. A requiem mass (Mass of the Angels) will be celebrated for her on Monday, 7th November at 10.30am. May she rest in peace and may the Lord comfort her family.

Saturday Morning Mass

This is now at 10:00am, followed at 10:45 by the opportunity for the sacrament of reconciliation (confession). On Saturdays when Father Graeme is away, a Eucharistic Service will be held.

When a requiem is booked in, this will become the mass of the day, with the exceptions of afternoon requiems or when a requiem is booked after the newsletter has been published, please note this for the 7th November.

Coffee Morning

St. Mary's Friends of Uganda are holding a coffee morning at their parish centre on Devonshire Road on Tuesday, 8th November from 10am to 1:30pm. Admission is free and there will be refreshments, tombola, bricabrac, a cake stall etc. All most welcome.

Collection

Thank you for last week's collection of £1321 (which includes two annual donations), and thank you for the World Mission Sunday collection (AFP) which came to £360.

Next week we are asked to support our two diocesan priests working in South America through LAMP.

Sincere thanks for your continued generous financial support of our parish and these various appeals.

Eucharistic Ministers' Meeting

There will be a meeting of (present and future) Eucharistic ministers with Father Graeme at The House on Thursday, 10th November at 7:30 pm about celebrating Holy Communion under both kinds and fixing the Christmas rota. Please let Father Graeme know if you cannot come.

Word of the Lord Day – Saturday, 12th November, Aintree

A great opportunity to spend a day to get to know the Gospel according to Matthew in preparation for Advent and the new liturgical year: The Diocese is hosting 'Introducing the Gospel according to Matthew' with the help of the inspirational writer Fr. Denis McBride. There will also be workshops opportunities – please see the poster on the noticeboard. I recommend Fr. Denis McBride as an excellent speaker and it would help the parish enormously if some parishioners were to take part. Parish groups of five will enjoy a reduced rate of £50 (lunch and tea/coffee included), let's try and fill a car and the parish will carry the cost. Venue: Holy Rosary Parish Centre, Aintree L10 2LG. Please give us your name and contact details if you would like to go.
